ROSENAU BROS.,
KEEPERS OF LOW PRICES. PROPRIETORS BEE HIVE

JOLLY BIKERS.

Three smart young men, and three nice girls—all lovers, true as steel—
Decided in a friendly way
To spend the day wheeling
They started in the early morning
And nothing seemed amiss
When they reached the leafy lanes
They rode in two like this!

They wandered by the verdant dale,
Beside the rippling rill,
The sun shone brightly all the while;
They heard the song-bird's trill.
They sped through many a woodland glade—
The world was full of bliss—
And when they rested in the shade,
The world was full of bliss!

The sun went down and evening came
A lot too soon, they said;
Too long they tarried on the way,
The clouds grew black overhead,
Down dashed the rain! They homeward flew,
Till one unlucky miss
Slipped sideways—Crash! Great Scott!
The lot were almost up the creek!

Laugh! William Hanks loaded his pop corn machine and himself on the steamer Lizzie Lay and a tag hanging from the button-hole of his coat showed that he was going to try and see if the good people of fronton liked popcorn. We do not hesitate to recommend Mr. Hanks to the citizens of fronton, because we know him, and he is as square and honest as it is possible for a human to be. We hope his success at fronton will be even greater than it has been here, as he deserves all that can come his way.

NEWS NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY

The U. S. S. Sigsbee E. A. Woodruff is at Cincinnati.

The Avon was down last night from Kansas for Louisville.

The U. S. Lighthouse Tender Goldsboro is receiving a new coat of paint.

The steamer Sigsbee was hauled out by the Queen City Marine Ways yesterday. The George Matthews was floated Saturday, and Captain Fred Hartwick and that the Sigsbee is the next boat to be hauled out. It is reported that it is necessary to keep a steam engine running all the time on the Sigsbee, and that when she starts boilers and has to steam it is necessary to keep two large pumps going to keep her afloat.

The steamer Boston, which has been kept at Fulton for several months without inspection papers from the United States Steamship Inspectors, raised steam Sunday and it was reported that she would leave for Louisville. The agent of the company owning the Boston could not tell whether the Boston was to be put in the Louisville trade or not. Part of the crew from the Cincinnati was ordered to go on the Boston.

It was the intention of the Queen City Marine Ways to pull out the City of Louisville for a general overhauling, but it was found Saturday that there is not enough water on the cradle to allow the Louisville to float on. To the extent, one of the cradles at the marine ways is obstructed, and will not lower to the depth that the others do, consequently it is now impossible to pull out a long boat on the present stage of the river. The cradle will be repaired as soon as possible, but it will be two weeks more on hand to it now.

DISPEPSIA

"My wife suffered for many years from Nervous Dyspepsia, indigestion, sleeplessness and nervous depression. She tried various remedies, but failed. I then procured a bottle of Dr. J. H. Samuel's Large Box of Tablets, and after taking a few boxes, she was cured. She now eats and sleeps well, and is in perfect health. I can truly say that Dr. J. H. Samuel's Large Box of Tablets is the best medicine I ever used for Dyspepsia. It has made her ten years younger."

Bakers' Bread.

The bakers' bread of today is not the bakers' bread of twenty years ago. Science and study have developed this food product more than any other manufactured article of consumption. The F. H. H. Company of this city is now the leading bread bakers of this section, simply because they have given study and close attention for years to making Bread that will please the public. Even now there is an impression that prevails among the few that bakers' bread is unwholesome and unfit for family use. We will admit that there are many bakers who make their bread the same as their forefathers did years ago, and hence this impression is justifiable to those who never had an opportunity to get Bread made by modern processes and by bakers who thoroughly understand how to make Bread that will be praised for its merits. The F. H. H. Company has done this, and we have evidence of it, and the evidence is the increasing demand wherever sold.
